

Please do not air this documentary Stolen Honor and unless you intend to air Going Upriver directly afterwards. This is not a democracy when you use the public airways for your own political position. Please reconsider your position on this. I also think this could really bacfire for your stand when the American people realize whats going on. Hopefully they realize before this election. Sincerely Jan & Patrick weidhaas